

HANDS-ON HISTORY!

THE LAST OF THE EDSALL DESTROYER ESCORTS!

Volunteers are being accepted to help in the restoration of the USS Stewart and the USS Cavalla at the GALVESTON NAVAL MUSEUM, Seawolf Park, Galveston Texas. (American Undersea Warfare Center).

NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY!

Spend time on vessels that saw action in WWII and served America through the Vietnam conflict! Of the 85 EDSALL CLASS Destroyer Escorts built in Texas shipyards during World War 2, only the USS Stewart, DE-238 remains in North America.

SIGN UP NOW for the May 1st to 8th spring Ship Restoration Week, for a few days or the whole week. We have the best free food in the restoration fleet, and you can berth in an historic ship free! Your travel (auto, airline, train, bus, etc.), meal expenses and any hotel/motel expenses are deductible as a charitable donation on your 2019 income taxes (in 2019). ONLY 35 VOLUNTEERS CAN BE ACCEPTED!

VOLUNTEER FOR THE "ENGINEROOM RESTO CREW"!

Want to take responsibility for a particular space? Make it yours! Talk to us!

For additional information or to sign-on, contact:
Mac Christy ENC USN (RET) machief@hughes.net
841 Thomas Rd.

Pomona KS 66076

785-255-4368